1985 OUTLOOK

Patience is the key for this year's baseball team. Graduation and pre-season injuries have resulted in a younger, less experienced line-up than last spring's squad. Nowhere is this more evident than in the pitching staff. Only three of last year's pitchers are returning; seniors Ken Echols and Keith Lippy, and sophomore Jim Anderson. Unfortunately, Echols, the former first team ACC choice, may be out for the season with an arm injury. Freshmen R. J. Bistle, Dave Karczeski and Thom Tryon are all expected to contribute.

Senior Bryan Davenport, a three-year letterman, will be anchoring the outfield. Also returning are sophomores Don Sweeney and Jeff Bengtson, who finished third on the team last year in RBI's, with 20 in 96 at-bats. However, Sweeney will miss some of the early season due to a pulled hamstring suffered in pre-season. Another sophomore, Mike Murphy, from SUNY Albany, will fill in for Sweeney.

The infield will be led by junior Chris Stark st third base. Sophomore Paul Schager, who had some playing time at third last year, will be at first this season.

Catching chores will be handled by returning sophomore Charlie Laird and freshman Scott Patterson.

Last spring's record was 18-14-3. If the younger players who dominate this season's line-up play up to the potential Coach Jackson feels they have, the Terrapins should be a competitive team. A challenge for the ACC title is not out of reach in this, Jackson's 25th year at the helm.

JACK JACKSON

Head Coach

1985 marks Coach "Jack" Jackson's 25th season as head coach of baseball at the University of Maryland. Associated with Terrapin baseball sine 1955, Jackson became head coach in 1960, replacing H. Burton Shipley. Jackson is only the second head baseball coach the university has had since former President Dr. H.C. Byrd retired from coaching in 1923.

In past years, Jackson has been a professor in the Department of Physical Education. Two years ago, Jackson left this position to become assistant operations director of the Athletic Department.

A native of Baltimore, Jackson signed to play baseball with the Philadelphia Athletics as a shortstop. He made the Tobacco State All-Scar team his rookie year, and led the Central Association in fielding during the 1949 season. In 1950, while playing for Fayetteville in the Carolina League, he tied the league record for assists in a single game. Jackson was with the Athletics organization until he joined the army in 1952.

In Jackson's 24 seasons at Maryland, his overall record is 365-284-12. In the ACC, his record is 180-138, and he has led the Terrapins to three ACC titles.

RAY RUFFING

Assistant Coach

In his ninth year, "Road" is the senior assistant to Coach Jackson. A retired sergeant with the D.C. police department, Ruffing has since devoted his time to baseball. His assistant coaching duties include scheduling, coordinating road trips, and scouting. In addition to his duties at Maryland, he has been the head coach of Mercury Van Lines, and Industrial League team. He also umpires in the summer.

JIM FLACK

Assistant Coach

Jim Flack is in his third year with the University of Maryland. Flack is also a full-time associate professor of history at the university. He assists with general coaching, especially catching, and occupies the first base coach's box during Terrapin games. Flack is also a valuable asset to the players with academic advising.

NAM HO YOO

Assistant Coach

Yoo is an intern this season with the coaching staff. A former captain in the Korean army, he was an assistant pitching coach for several professional baseball teams in Korea. Yoo also pitched for the highly successful Korean national team. At Maryland, he will be working with the pitchers.
